From Tuesday February 1. to Saturday February 5. 1725.

St. James's, February 4.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, have been preſented to His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed ever ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions.

The Preſervation of our Liberties, and of the true Religion eſtabliſhed among us, do, next under God, depend upon your Majeſty and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe; and we are perſwaded, that your Majeſty's generous Concern and powerful Interpoſition in Behalf of our oppreſſed Proteſtant Brethren abroad, muſt ſtill, if poſſible, endear your Majeſty and your Government more and more to all who have a juſt Senſe of Religion and Liberty.

We reſt aſſur'd, that your Majeſty's great Wiſdom will effectually diſappoint the Views of all thoſe who may endeavour to render themſelves formidable; and that by the Bleſſing of that Providence which has always powerfully aſſiſted your Majeſty, and by a peculiar Care has brought you back in Safety to your People, you will be able to protect us in and ſecure to us the Enjoyment of all our valuable Rights and Privileges.

We doubt not, but that the Enemies to your Majeſty and their Country will conceive freſh Hopes from a Proſpect of new Troubles and Commotions in Europe, and will again employ their traiterous Endeavours in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender: We think ourſelves in Duty obliged upon this Occaſion to renew our Aſſurances to your Majeſty, that we will chearfully, to the utmoſt of our Power, do every thing that ſhall be for the Service of your Majeſty, and for the Support of your Government; and that we will with the greateſt Zeal employ our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Sacred Perſon, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe; by the Preſervation of which only, we can, through the Bleſſing of God, hope to tranſmit our Religion and Liberties to our Poſterity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, with Hearts full of Joy and the deepeſt Senſe of the Bleſſings of your moſt auſpicious Reign, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to Great Britain.

The Preſervation of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects through the whole Courſe of your glorious Reign; your gracious Interpoſition and tender Regard for the diſtreſſed Proteſtants Abroad, and your unwearied Endeavours for the Publick Tranquility, convince us that not only the Security of the Religion and Civil Rights of your People, but even the Peace of Europe, depends on the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Family.

We cannot therefore but look upon all Endeavours to interrupt the Quiet of your Majeſty's Reign, as impious Attempts to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution, to introduce and eſtabliſh Popery and arbitrary Power in theſe Kingdoms, and to favour the ambitious Deſigns of thoſe who would diſturb the Peace of Europe.

We are firmly perſwaded, That the Wiſdom and Prudence of your Majeſty's Councils and Adminiſtration, the Steadineſs of your faithful Subjects, and their conſtant Zeal for your Honour and Safety, ſupported by your powerful Allies, will ſoon convince the Enemies of your Government, how vain it is to endeavour to diſturb it; and aſſure ourſelves, that all Attempts to promote the Cauſe of the Pretender, will end in his Deſtruction ſtruction and the Ruin of thoſe, who, contrary to their Oaths and the Intereſt of their Country, adhere to him.

Your faithful Commons think themſelves obliged to lay hold on this Occaſion to renew their ſincere Profeſſions of Duty and Fidelity to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will take the moſt effectual Methods for enabling your Majeſty to put this Kingdom and your Forces on this Eſtabliſhment into ſuch a Condition, as may contribute to diſcourage all Attempts of your Enemies; and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, as the Exigency and Neceſſity of Affairs require, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government with our Lives and Fortunes.
